

Notice of Land Use Advisory Vacancies

The Greater Monterey Peninsula and Carmel Highlands Land Use Advisory Committee (LUAC) are actively seeking new members.

Carmel Unincorporated/Highlands

The Carmel Unincorporated/Highlands Land Use Advisory Committee (LUAC) is actively seeking new members from the Carmel Unincorporated/Highlands area. If you have a vested interest in the development and preservation of this unique community, we encourage you to submit a Statement of Interest (SOI). This SOI, along with additional details, can be found on our website under the Announcements section: www.countyofmonterey.gov.

The LUAC meets on the first and third Monday of each month at 4:00 p.m., convening at the Carmel Highlands Fire Protection District. These meetings not only facilitate dialogue among committee members but also provide an opportunity for residents to stay informed and involved in community affairs.

Greater Monterey Peninsula

The Greater Monterey Peninsula Land Use Advisory Committee (LUAC) is actively seeking new members from the Greater Monterey Peninsula area. If you have a vested interest in the development and preservation of this unique community, we encourage you to submit a Statement of Interest (SOI). This SOI, along with additional details, can be found on our website under the Announcements section: www.countyofmonterey.gov.

The LUAC meets on the first and third Monday of each month at 3:00 p.m., convening at the Monterey County Courthouse, Lower Level, Concession Area, 1200 Aguajito Road, Monterey. These meetings not only facilitate dialogue among committee members but also provide an opportunity for residents to stay informed and involved in community affairs.

Purpose of the LUAC

The primary aim of the LUAC is to serve as an advisory body, providing comments and recommendations to the Appropriate Authority (the Chief of Planning, the Zoning Administrator, the Planning Commission, and/or the Board of Supervisors) regarding land use planning matters that pertain to our community. LUACs reflect the perspectives of the local community with focus on neighborhood character, unique community site and conditions and potential local effects or contributions that would likely result from the implementation of a proposed project; perform such other review of land use issues as may be requested from time to time by the Planning Commission or the Board of Supervisors; provide a venue for project neighbors to provide input on proposed projects; identify concerns in response to staff provided scope of review on neighborhood, community and site issues excluding regional impacts which are the purview of the Appropriate Authority.
